FATHER OF AN INDUSTRY

by Don Estes

While it is impossible to trace the genesis of the Issei interest in Southern California's commercial tuna fishery, most authorities agree that one of the men most involved in pioneering the local tuna industry was Masaharu Kondo.

The man who was to play a major role in shaping a regional industry was born in Kyoto in 1877, and grew to manhood in Japan's ancient capital city. As a young man, he attended the elite Tokyo Imperial University where he majored in agricultural sciences, a curriculum that included fisheries and oceanography which were to hold a life-long interest for Kondo.

After graduation, he was hired to teach at the Imperial Fisheries Institute where he was eventually appointed to the school's board of commissioners. While serving in that capacity, Kondo was invited to undertake a tour of the world to study the fishing technologies of other nations.

Arriving in Los Angeles in 1908, Kondo visited both the San Pedro and San Diego areas and quickly realized the untapped potential of Southern California's fishery. After completing his tour, he returned to Japan and was able to raise sufficient financial backing to allow him to establish a fishing company in San Diego.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE
As we begin a new year, my thoughts focus on our past events. Your Historical Society has been very busy. For instance, our activities have included:
1. Sponsoring and setting up numerous exhibits.
2. Sharing our experiences with students.
3. Interviewing many of our own community members for the ReGeneration Project.

Our mission is, and has always been, to record and share the cultural heritage and experiences of our people. With limited resources, it is difficult to do a complete job.

With the theme of our annual meeting this past year being "Family History," I would encourage each family to record your history. Some day, you, your children and grandchildren will cherish it, not regret it.

With hope that the start of this new year finds everyone in good health, the board and I wish everyone a happy, prosperous and healthy new year and hope we can depend on your support during the coming months.

Ben Segawa
President

CAUGHT DOING SOMETHING NICE

The JAHSSD would like to acknowledge and thank the following individuals for their generous contributions to the ever-growing collection of our society.

Mr. Shig “Blackie” Matsushita for his donation of a carved and painted panoramic view of Poston Camp III.

Mrs. Tamiko Koide Kinoshita for her gift of three original oil paintings painted by her mother, and well-known local artist, Mrs. Miwa Koide. We also would like to recognize the additional gift of four panoramic photos of the local Nikkei community dating from 1926.

Dr. Azusa Tsuneyoshi of Twenty-Nine Palms, California, who attended our annual meeting in October and allowed our society to copy several photographs from his collection for inclusion in our growing photo archive.

Reverend Akio Miyaji, and Mrs. Jeanne Inouye, for their invaluable assistance with the photo history display your society fabricated for the dedication of the San Diego Buddhist Temple’s new Sangha Hall.

We want to acknowledge and thank Mr. Masami Honda, Mr. James Yamate, Mrs. Dorothy Yonemitsu, and Mr. Joe Yoshioka for their active participation in our ReGenerations resettlement study.

In 1912, Kondo organized the M.K. Fishing Company and applied to the Mexican Government for an exclusive fishing concession in Baja California at Turtle Bay (Bahia Tortugas). With the approval of the concession, Kondo began to bring the first contract Japanese fishermen to Mexico. With these Issei fishermen came a technology that soon spread along the entire West Coast and became the basis for an industry.

Among the innovations that were introduced to this area by Kondo’s men were the use of the long, flexible Japanese bamboo pole equipped with a new type of lure called a “squid.” Other techniques like “chumming” to create feeding frenzies among the schools of tuna, and fully refrigerated boats with long-range radios followed.

At the cannery his men built at Turtle Bay, Kondo, for the first time, successfully developed a technique for canning abalone whole. There, in Baja California, his men also dried abalone for shipment to San Diego and later distribution to Hawaii and Japan. Former employees of the M.K. Company remember that it was common occurrence to find abalone stacked ten to twelve deep at places along the Mexican coast.

Members of the local Nikkei community still recall the huge piles of dried abalone awaiting shipment that were kept in the company’s shed at the Santa Fe wharf on San Diego Bay. A few also remember sneaking into the shed as youngsters and appropriating a dried abalone for an illicit afternoon snack.

In 1931, beset by the great depression and the expropriation of his cannery at Turtle Bay by the Mexican government, the Issei entrepreneur returned to Japan to seek new financing, but was unable to raise the funds necessary to save his company from bankruptcy.

Masaharu Kondo never returned to the United States. He died in Tokyo in 1948, but his legacy was the great tuna industry of Southern California.

TRACING YOUR NIKKEI ROOTS

Those who attended our Annual meeting in October heard a discussion and received handouts on outlining some of the ways Nikkei family records might be obtained. Mich Himaka covered methods of obtaining personal and family records gathered by the U.S. Government during World War II that are now deposited in the National Archives. Mich related his efforts to recover his file and exhibited copies of these documents which ran over fifty pages.

Mich was followed by Don Estes who discussed the types of family records available in record centers in the U.S. and Japan that can be used to help trace Nikkei families.

To obtain copies of your personal records from the National Archives you must first request a copy of the "See Nikkei Roots page 3" your file. These records usually include medical, educational, employment and property records. It is not uncommon to find that your file also includes personal background and genealogical information.

You can receive not only your personal file but the files of deceased members of your family. Mich pointed out that he was able to obtain the files on both his parents and an older sister who is now deceased.

To obtain these records you will need to supply the full name of the relative, provide the relationship, date of birth and date of death. It is also helpful if you can provide any nicknames that might have been used while they were in camp. The approximate date of evacuation and the camps of residence is also requested if known.

The National Archives estimates the average cost to be approximately $20 per case file. When you request files, the National Archives will send you an order blank informing you of how many pages are in the file you are requesting and the total cost of reproduction and shipping. Expect that the turn around time for the National Archives will be at least 12 weeks.

Mich pointed out that the National Archives also requires a copy of a death certificate if the individual whose records you are requesting was born after 1921. As he stated in his talk, it is Mich’s guess that if you were born before 1921 the National Archives assumes that you’re already gone.

Requests should be directed to: The National Archives and Record Administration, Attention: Textual Reference, Washington, D.C. 20408.

If you would like a copy of both handouts mailed to you please send a self addressed, stamped envelop with $.55 return postage to: Genealogy, JAHSSD, P.O. Box 6220988, San Diego, CA 92126-0988.

FRANCES CUSHMAN PIERCE
DEC. 31, 1907-NOV. 2, 1997

It is with deepest regret that we report the passing of our beloved Frances Cushman Pierce, principal of Parker Valley High School during our early World War II years of internment in Poston III, Ariz. Miss Cushman, as we knew her, was a native of Liberty, Mo. The word we received was that she passed away on Nov. 2, 1997, in Vancouver, Wash. She had been living in recent years in Roswell, N.M. Miss Cushman is survived by two adopted daughters; eight grandchildren; and one brother. We extend our deepest sympathy and condolences to her family. It was her encouragement during her years as principal that enabled so many of us to return to the “outside world” and resume our lives and seek our goals. For that, we owe her a great debt of gratitude. She will be sorely missed by all who were touched by her kindness.

IN MEMORIAM

The JAHSSD notes the passing of the following San Diegans and former residents in recent months. We extend our condolences to their families and friends.

NEW MEMBERSHIP CATEGORY

At its November meeting, your Board of Directors voted to establish a new membership category for full time students. Effective immediately any full time K-12 student, or a student currently enrolled for at least 12 undergraduate units or 9 graduate units may join the JAHSSD for $15 per year.

This is a perfect chance for young people to help preserve the Nikkei past for our future.

The new membership, like all memberships, will date from the time of joining. You might consider a membership for a child or grandchild.

MEMBERSHIP NEWS
By Yukio Kawamoto, Membership Chair

I want to thank all the members for your past support by joining the JAHSSD. Without that support, the JAHSSD would not have been able to get off the ground nor accomplish as much as we have to date. I hope all of you will continue to support the JAHSSD.

Welcome to new life members George and Toshiko Asakawa of Yellow Springs, Ohio and to Sumitomo Bank of California (Mrs. Agnes Benson, Vice President and Manager of the San Diego branch) who joined as a corporate member. We also welcome Yoshito and Marleen Kawahara, Thomas A.O. Kelly, Jodi Masumoto, June Shimazu, Pam Springer and Mary Tanizaki, who joined recently as annual members. We appreciate all of your support.

Our membership reaches far and wide. We have members from as far away as Japan and Holland, from Hawaii, Illinois, Michigan, Ohio, Washington state, and from throughout California. If you have any friends who are former San Diegans, tell them about us and invite them to join the JAHSSD. I'm sure they will enjoy reading our newsletters. Some members have provided gift memberships for their relatives and friends. Why not consider a gift membership for your out-of-town relatives and friends this holiday season?

As noted in the Fall 1997 issue of Footprints, we are changing some things in the way we handle membership renewals. Instead of having the membership run from the first of the calendar year to the end of the year, the membership year will run from the anniversary month that you joined JAHSSD until the end of the same month next year. For example, if you joined in June 1994, your membership year 1997/1998 will run from June 1997 to June 30, 1998. The expiration date of your membership will appear in the upper right corner of the mailing label on each issue of the Footprints. In addition, beginning in 1998 we will be sending you a reminder approximately one month before your membership expires. We hope we will have your full cooperation in sending in your annual dues promptly when you get the renewal notice.

REMEMBER WHEN?
Go back some 60 years in your memory bank to 1937-38 and try to remember where some of us lived in San Diego County. See if you can match the address on the left with the family names. MAYBE I AM JUST SCARED OF WHAT WILL HAPPEN TO ME
IF I DO NOT SWING MY SWORD AROUND VERY CAREFULLY.
WITH ALL OF THIS PADDING PROTECTING MY FACE
AND MY ABILITY TO WIN ANY AND EVERY RACE.
I AM SAD FOR THE JAPANESE BUT THERE IS NOTHING I CAN DO
TO PROTECT THE LIVES OF MY PEOPLE SUFFERING
THROUGH AND THROUGH

By melissa

I was born in here, so
I thought that I am a citizen,
I thought that I am American citizen
But they did think that,
they think I will betray.
They think I am Japanese.
They don't understand what I feel because they are white, not like me.

Dreams
For some reason I can't walk freely
Down the streets because people stare at me
My parents told me that the streets were going to be paved with gold
But all the things I see here in California are very nice
Hopefully some day my family will feel free and have a healthy and wealthy time
And what our dream is just being accepted and equal be rest to think
I know some day this dream will come true
And everyone else's American dream will too.

Teresa Occiano
American Dream

Striving to be the best,
never getting any rest,
constantly achieving, always grieving,
doing the best you can is all part of the master plan,
to make ends meet and stay on your feet,
for the dream is to be just like everybody.

Rocky Road of Life

Why is life so tough,
I am only 12 and things are rough.
My family is always looked down on
Just because of our race,
I don't understand the hatred
We just have a different face.
We've worked so hard to achieve success,
Night and day, without any rest.
And once we almost reached the top,
But we were stripped of our things
And forced to live locked up.
Japanese Americans

Through time they have paid, for something unexplainable, lived in concentration camps, w/ public bathrooms, small cramped space, w/ kendo for recreation. Trapped for years, did the best they could, treated like animals, came to america for a bright future, which ended in a wish, set free one day, many stayed w/ no where to go, no money, nothing, what do we do? where do we go? how do we begin again?

Japanese In The Camps

Independent
No one cared about them except for the others at the camps
They had nothing
Eating was horrible, small portions everyday
Rooms were made of wood, cardboard, and what ever else they could find
No privacy
Many lives were destroyed at these camps
Enemies to many people, the Japanese that is
No one there to help them out
This awful thing happened to the Japanese

Crowded rooms
Animals is how they were treated
Money was not for them and if so it was nothing to live on Poor is how they lived at these camps
Smells of all different things, which weren't pleasant

The American Dream

The American dream,
where do I get it.
I travel, I work,
I strive to survive.

They offer streets of gold,
they give dark alleys of stones,
they say it's the land of the free,
but here we are trapped behind fences.
The American Dream,
I guess it's not for me.

I need to escape this place, this hall.
It makes me sick everyday of my life.
Scorpions, rattlesnakes, scorpions, ants and worm just around the corner looking for something to prey on. The environment plagued w/ diseases with no cures. Filthy people around you with viruses and germs.
Being a soldier is hell. Please tell me why I am fighting for the wrong country. I know it's for freedom and for a better future but please can someone please tell me when this war will end.
POSTON III Y.B.A. BOOK FOR SALE

In 1945, the Young Buddhist Association of Poston III published a pictorial book, “Mohaveland,” as a record of people and life in Poston. The JAHSSD has reproduced the book and it is now available for sale. Although the book was published by the Young Buddhists Association, we believe that it is of general interest and a valuable publication, not only as memento of the times, but in giving a glimpse of camp life to our children and grandchildren.

If you would like to order a copy of the book, please fill out the order form and send it to the address indicated on the form along with a check made payable to “JAHSSD.”
